Filing Description:

This filing introduces a new auto product in a new Allstate company. This new product will feature the following deviations from the auto policy offered in Allstate Fire and Casualty Insurance Company (AFCIC):

- Rather than one large policy jacket, the policy will be a modular structure, with each coverage section being encompassed in its own form. This will allow customers to only receive forms that pertain to them for coverages they purchase. There are efficiencies gained in a modular structure for maintenance with new state laws, as well as with future product development when the same module can be used in other products with identical language. To the insured, applicable modules will flow together resembling a traditional policy jacket, headed by a Table Of Contents.
- Rated operators (resident non-relatives) can be added to the policy. Vehicles owned by rated operators or by the named insured can be covered. The term "family member" has been updated to include rated operators. This deviation is in the form MV-Dev-VA (04/23)
- Collision and Other Than Collision coverages will include a base limit for personal effects and custom equipment which is damaged in an accident that also damages the covered vehicle, with buy-up limits available. This deviation is in the form MV-PECE-VA (04/23)
- Ride for Hire coverage will apply to both transportation network companies and delivery networks. See form MV-RFH-VA (04/23).
- Expanded to provide Medical Expense coverage for a named insured using a ride for hire vehicle.
- Expanded to provide Collision and Other Than Collision coverage during the stand-by period and the other physical damage coverages during all TNC periods.

The new product will be open to all customers for new business.

Customers in the existing Allstate companies will continue to renew into their current product, so coverage will not change. Existing Allstate customers may get a new policy in the new product at their option.

The new business application reflects the digital sales process that the customer will experience online.

Dear Deborah Larsen,

Introduction:

Thank you for your response to our last objection letter. We have reviewed the information, and the following requires your attention.

Objection 1

- VA Rating Information, X74097, 04/23 (Form)

Comments: When the company lists any of the possible discounts on the Rating Information Statement, all of the possible discounts must be provided on the form. Please amend the Rating Information Statement to include the Defensive Driver Discount.

Conclusion:

Should you have any questions, or if you would like to discuss this issue, please feel free to contact me via email at Jeanne.brannan@scc.virginia.gov or call me at 804-371-9537.

Sincerely,

Jeanne Brannan

Dear Deborah Larsen,

Introduction:

Thank you for your submission of August 3, 2023. We have conducted our review and the following issue will require your attention.

Objection 1

Comments: In accordance with Virginia Code § 38.2-2214, the insurer shall provide the named insured with a statement defining their rate classifications. This statement shall be provided at the time of issuance or at the time of renewal if there has been a change in the named insured's rate classification. Therefore, please submit a Rating Information Statement for our approval as a part of the company's forms.

Conclusion:

Should you have any questions, or if you would like to discuss this issue, please feel free to contact me via email at Jeanne.brannan@scc.virginia.gov or call me at 804-371-9537.

Sincerely,

Jeanne Brannan

Dear Deborah Larsen,

Introduction:

Thank you for your response of our prior objection. We have conducted our review, and the following issue will require your attention.

Objection 1

- Personal Effects and Custom Equipment, MV-PECE-VA, 04/23 (Form)

Comments: After further review, we will not allow the custom equipment and electronic equipment coverages to be grouped together on this form for Personal Effects. These two coverages are addressed on Virginias standard auto forms. As stated in our prior objection, the personal auto policy allows for Custom Equipment up to $1,500 and Electronic Equipment up to $1,000. If you would like to broaden coverage by offering an additional $500 for Electronic Equipment, you may do so by adding an endorsement to the Amendment of Policy Provisions PP 01 99 01 22. If the company wishes to provide excess custom equipment or excess electronic equipment for additional premium, it must file the appropriate endorsements for approval. Please amend this form by removing the custom equipment and excess electronic equipment mentions.

Objection 2

- Virginia Deviations, MV-Dev-VA, 04/23 (Form)

Comments: Thank you for bringing it to our attention that the sections titled What law will apply and Where Lawsuits May Be Brought have been on Allstates policy forms since 2008. However, this is not an acceptable subject to be addressed on the policy form. As stated in our prior objection, these issues are to be decided by the courts and attorneys involved. These sections must be removed from the policy form.

Conclusion:

Should you have any questions, or if you would like to discuss this issue, please feel free to contact me via email at Jeanne.brannan@scc.virginia.gov.

Sincerely,

Jeanne Brannan

Dear Deborah Larsen,

Introduction:

Thank you for your submission of August 3, 2023. We have conducted our review, and the following issue will require your attention.

Objection 1

- Personal Effects and Custom Equipment, MV-PECE-VA, 04/23 (Form)

Comments: Please refer to Form MV-PECE-VA (04-23). Since the personal auto policy allows for $1,500 custom equipment coverage and $1,000 electronic equipment coverage, we would recommend that the references to custom equipment and electronic equipment be removed from the Personal Effects coverage section and handled separately. There is ISO only endorsements for Excess Custom Equipment and Excess Electronic Equipment if the company wants to offer more coverage for an additional premium. If not, it needs to be clearly stated that the personal auto policy automatically affords for $1,500 custom equipment and $1,000 electronic equipment for no additional premium.

Objection 2

- Virginia Deviations, MV-Dev-VA, 04/23 (Form)

Comments: The sections titled "What law will apply" and "Where Lawsuits May Be Brought" will need to be removed from the Virginia Deviations form. Both of these issues would be handled and determined by the courts and attorneys involved. In addition, this is not a broadening of coverage and therefore, should not be stated in the personal auto policy forms.

Objection 3

Comments: For this new auto program, a rating information statement must be filed in accordance with Virginia Code § 38.2-2214.

Conclusion:

Should you have any questions, or if you would like to discuss this issue, please feel free to contact me via email at Jeanne.brannan@scc.virginia.gov.

Sincerely,

Jeanne Brannan

Related Objection 2

Applies To:

- Virginia Deviations, MV-Dev-VA, 04/23 (Form)

Comments: Thank you for bringing it to our attention that the sections titled What law will apply and Where Lawsuits May Be Brought have been on Allstates policy forms since 2008. However, this is not an acceptable subject to be addressed on the policy form. As stated in our prior objection, these issues are to be decided by the courts and attorneys involved. These sections must be removed from the policy form.

Dear Jeanne Brannan,

Introduction:

Good afternoon.

Related Objection 1

Applies To:

- Personal Effects and Custom Equipment, MV-PECE-VA, 04/23 (Form)

Comments: Please refer to Form MV-PECE-VA (04-23). Since the personal auto policy allows for $1,500 custom equipment coverage and $1,000 electronic equipment coverage, we would recommend that the references to custom equipment and electronic equipment be removed from the Personal Effects coverage section and handled separately. There is ISO only endorsements for Excess Custom Equipment and Excess Electronic Equipment if the company wants to offer more coverage for an additional premium. If not, it needs to be clearly stated that the personal auto policy automatically affords for $1,500 custom equipment and $1,000 electronic equipment for no additional premium.

Related Objection 2

Applies To:

- Virginia Deviations, MV-Dev-VA, 04/23 (Form)

Comments: The sections titled "What law will apply" and "Where Lawsuits May Be Brought" will need to be removed from the Virginia Deviations form. Both of these issues would be handled and determined by the courts and attorneys involved. In addition, this is not a broadening of coverage and therefore, should not be stated in the personal auto policy forms.
