Filing Description:

With this filing, Allstate is proposing revisions to the following rating plans for the Allstate Indemnity Company (AI) Private Passenger Auto (PPA) program in the Commonwealth of Virginia in response to objections from filing ALSE-134054715: Renewal Discount, Defensive Driver Discount, Preferred Policy Discount.

Further information regarding these changes can be found in the enclosed attachments.

These changes will apply to new business written on or after 11/17/2025 and for renewals effective on or after 12/18/2025.

This filing company is closed to new business. Allstate has, however, supplied a new business effective date for special business cases. For example, to accommodate a new business policy in the same company to a policyholder that has been reinstated, or if a cancel/re-write is necessary.

Comment: While the material in this filing is hereby acknowledged as "Filed," the company's interpretation of the Code regarding its Defensive Driver Discount is incorrect. It is the Bureau's position that an appropriate reduction in premium must be allowed to all eligible persons as outlined in §38.2-2217.D. Section 38.2-2217 goes on to discuss each participant receiving a certificate as evidence of their completion of the course for the reduction in premium charges and each participant taking an approved course every three years to continue to be eligible for the reduction in premium charges. The company's rules may not place any additional restrictions other than what is set forth in the Code as it pertains to the application of the discount. The Bureau recognizes this is a change from how the company has previously applied the discount, and this will be addressed as needed with companies going forward in order to ensure compliance.

The Bureau would expect the company to formulate rating such that each driver who is on the policy and completes the course would be afforded the discount.

The company should note that this amendment is required of Allstate group's other PPA programs which are not currently in compliance with the Code of Virginia as well.

Dear Deborah Larsen,

Introduction:

Thank you for the company's time and submission received on 10/08/2025. Please review the following items which require the company's attention.

Objection 1

- Manual Pages, Pages 1; 14; 18; 25; 9 (Rate)

Comments: Please amend Rule 27 on Page 18 to specifically note each driver who qualifies will be afforded the Defensive Driver Discount, even if two drivers are assigned to one vehicle. It would not be permissible for the discount to apply only once to each motor vehicle regardless of the number of operators who have completed the course, as this is not a stipulation contemplated by §38.2-2217.

Additionally, as this information was previously requested in ALSE-134054715, please provide 1) the count of how many Defensive Driver Discounts were removed because the vehicle was not solely driven by the qualified driver and 2) what restitution may be owed for the removal of such discount since the inception of the rule.

Conclusion:

Feel free to reach out if there is anything I can assist with: madi.goldberg@scc.virginia.gov.

Sincerely,

Madi Goldberg

Refund Data

Comments:

Good afternoon, Madi.

In your Objection of 11/7/2025, you had asked for refund figures and in our Response we'd indicated we did not have them yet. Allstate has now completed its restitution investigation and found that zero policies require a refund in the past five years. Only one policy had an operator that qualified for the discount, but it was a single-operator circumstance so the vehicle correctly received the discount, and therefore no refund is required.

Please contact me if you have questions or need additional information.

Respectfully,

Deborah Larsen
