Dear Deborah Larsen,

Introduction:

Thank you for your time and objection response. However, the following issues will require your attention.

Objection 1

- Objection Response 2-18-25 (Supporting Document)

Comments: The Bureau understands the company's position on the matter, and it was under that understanding that the filing was initially approved. However, the text of the law requires "an offer in writing," and it is the opinion of the Bureau that such an offer needs to be made to the insured.

The company will need to offer forms where diminution of value is an option - either by two separate forms of which the insured can select one, a form which notes the insured chooses whether diminution of value applies in the declarations, or some other method.

The company may also certainly continue to offer diminution of value at no additional cost, so long as its rules/rates are amended to clarify the same. However, the offer to the insured must be made in the contract and unfortunately cannot be automatically extended to all insureds.

Conclusion:

Should you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at flora.worthington@scc.virginia.gov.

Sincerely,

Flora Worthington

Dear Deborah Larsen,

Introduction:

Objection 1

- Scheduled Personal Property Endorsement, AVP639-1, N/A (Form)

Comments: Upon further review of the forms, the Bureau has reopened this filing.

Per § 38.2-2120.B. - Optional coverage to be offered with homeowner's policy, the diminution of value coverage is a required "offer" to the insured. As such, it is the position of the Bureau that it would not be permissible for the company to automatically include this coverage with all scheduled personal property policies.

The company must amend the loss settlement provisions to note that the Diminution in Value coverage is utilized only if selected by the insured. This selection can be made in the form itself, or in the schedule/declarations. Alternatively, the company can submit another scheduled personal property endorsement with identical terms but with the Diminution of Value language removed.

Please resolve the issue as soon as able. Sincere apologies for the inconvenience.

Conclusion:

Should you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at flora.worthington@scc.virginia.gov.

Sincerely,

Flora Worthington

Dear Deborah Larsen,

Introduction:

Thank you for your submission. The following issues will require your attention.

Objection 1

- Scheduled Personal Property Endorsement, AVP639-1, N/A (Form)

Comments: Please refer to D.2.a.

The current phrasing still is not sufficiently clear for Business Personal Property. Amend a. to note that "We may elect to repair or replace any part to restore the pair or set to its value before the loss, which includes the diminution in value, if any," or amend the phrasing to match HOW WE SETTLE A LOSS A.2.b.

Dear Deborah Larsen,

Introduction:

Thank you for your submission. The following issues will require your attention.

Objection 1

- Scheduled Personal Property Endorsement, AVP639-1, N/A (Form)

Comments: Page 3:

Amend HOW WE SETTLE A LOSS D.2.a. to reflect the diminution in value provision for Business Personal Property.

"We may elect to repair or replace any part to restore the pair or set to its value before the loss; or pay the difference between the actual cash value of the property before and after the loss," does not state that the company will pay for diminution of value in the event of repair or replacement. Since the section provides for repair of such property, it must clarify that the diminution of value will be covered in the event of a loss.

Objection 2

- Certification of Compliance Chapter 340 (Supporting Document)

Comments: Chapter 340 of Title 14 has been repealed in favor of Chapters 341 and 342. This material is being returned to company.

Objection 3

- Certification of Compliance (14VAC5-341-10et seq) (Supporting Document)

Comments: Chapter 341 of Title 14 of the Virginia Administrative Code only applies to Owner Occupied Dwellings as defined in the chapter. This SERFF filing has been filed under the Homeowners line of insurance. This material is being returned to company. If the company has a Dwelling property program it wishes to amend, it must do so in a separate SERFF filing.

Conclusion:

Should you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at flora.worthington@scc.virginia.gov.

Objection Response Extension Request to 3/21/2025

Comments:

Good morning, Flora.

We are still in discussions and working through the concerns brought to our attention for this filing. Would it be possible to receive an additional Objection Response extension to 3/21/2025?

I thank you very much for considering.

Respectfully,

Deborah Larsen

Re: Objection Response Extension Request to 3/7/2025

Comments:

Per the request of the company, the response date has been extended to 3/7/25.

Recognizing the email sent by Jessica Baggarley on 2/20/25, the company may request additional extensions as the Bureau re-evaluates its position pending industry data.

Objection Response Extension Request to 3/7/2025

Comments:

Good afternoon, Flora.

Would it be possible to receive an Objection Response extension to 3/7/2025? A key contributor on our Team will be out of the office for several days beginning Friday, 2/21; we hope to respond sooner but want to be certain there is enough time to do proper research and meet to discuss and finalize our response.

Thank you very much for your consideration.

Respectfully,

Deborah Larsen
