Comment: This submission is hereby acknowledged as filed. Thank you for your objection response clarifying the company's use of the Rate Adjustment Factor. The Bureau wishes to gently remind the company that the Bureau would not find it acceptable for the company to alter base rates and alter the rate adjustment factor.

Dear Kimberly Snow,

Introduction:

Thank you for your submission. We have conducted our review and the following issue will require your attention.

Objection 1

- Motor Vehicle Rate Pages, Auto Premium Calculation (Rate)

Comments: The Bureau wishes to revisit the companys use of a rate adjustment factor:

Please define rate adjustment factor as the company understands the term.

Does the rate adjustment factor account for variable or fixed expenses, or both? Or neither?

Please explain why the base rates do not already account for this adjustment.

Please provide the specific elements that are evaluated to arrive at the companys selected rate adjustment factor.

The company utilizes a number of classifying variables that will continually refine the insureds premium, what is the need for a rate adjustment factor in addition to classification.

Please provide any expert commentary, industry publications or resources the company feels may be beneficial for the Bureau in our review.

Conclusion:

Should you have any questions, or if you would like to discuss this issue, please feel free to contact me via email at erin.marchetti@scc.virginia.gov.

Sincerely,

Erin Marchetti
